

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WORK RULE FOR WORKPLACE SAFETY
March 18, 2002
(Revised September 15, 2003)

POLICY

It is the Department of Management and Budget's policy to promote a safe environment to its employees. The department is committed to working with its employees to maintain a work environment free from acts of violence and threats of violence.

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this work rule, the following' definitions shall apply:

Act of violence means any intentional, reckless, or grossly negligent act that would reasonably be expected to cause physical injury or death to another person.

Threat of violence means any intentional communication or other act that threatens an act of violence and would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, threatened, or fear physical injury or death to oneself or another person. Any threat of violence, whether verbal, written, visual, or by gesture, will be presumed to be an expression of intent to do harm to another person.

Workplace means an office or building owned or leased by the state in which employees are assigned or work. It includes any state-owned or leased common grounds or parking areas used by employees assigned to or working in the office or building.

Explosive means any bomb, grenade, missile, or other dangerous device designed to expand suddenly and release internal energy resulting in an explosion.

Firearm means a weapon from which a dangerous projectile may be expelled by an explosive, gas, or air.

Act or Threat of Violence

Any act of violence or a threat of violence that is work-related or occurs in the workplace is strictly prohibited. Any employee who is subjected to or is aware that another employee is being subjected to an act of workplace or work-related violence or a threat of imminent violence shall immediately take appropriate measures to ensure his or her personal safety. The employee shall then promptly report the incident to appropriate law enforcement personnel and his/her supervisor. The supervisor shall immediately notify the appointing authority of the incident.

(Revised September 15, 2003)

Non-imminent acts or threats of violence shall be reported to the employee's supervisor. If the employee's supervisor is the individual engaging in violence or making a violent threat, the employee shall report the incident to the appointing authority's designated investigator, Jonathan Meyer, Human Resources Division.

All reports of an act of violence or a threat of workplace or work-related violence will be investigated and appropriately addressed. The appointing authority shall take reasonable actions to protect employees when a credible report of a violent act or threat of violence is received.

If the department receives information regarding an alleged act of violence, receives a threat of violence, or has a reasonable suspicion that an employee may have transported a firearm or explosive on state property without authorization, the department may conduct a search of desks, lockers, and any other storage space located on state property as part of the department's effort to investigate and appropriately address the situation.

Employees shall not sabotage or cause malicious destruction of or damage to state property, resources, work products, electronic files, or the property of another employee or a member of the general public.

Firearms and Explosives

An employee shall not carry or possess a firearm or explosive at a state workplace or during actual-duty time except as specifically authorized in this work rule and as authorized by law.

Except as provided by law, employees are not prohibited from carrying or possessing a firearm inside a personal vehicle while the firearm is completely unloaded and enclosed in a case in the vehicle or carried in the trunk of the vehicle.

This work rule covers all department employees' ability to carry or possess firearms or explosives at any state workplace, at any time and in any place, during actual duty-time. Except as specifically authorized by the work rule, a constitutional or statutory provision that otherwise authorizes an employee to carry or possess a firearm or explosive does not authorize the carrying or possessing of the firearm or explosive during actual duty-time or at a state workplace.

Reporting

Employees are obligated to report to management if any of the following circumstances occur:
